Chapter 1

Introduction

– Evan Cheng

1.1 My Section

All projects should have a small introduction. Here we provide some example LaTeX commands. The first one is an example on how to introduce a PNG file as an image into the document, together with how to use a cite, such as this one [1].

2.1 About Me

Hello, I am Evan Cheng and I am a 4/4 Computer Science Major with a minor in Software Engineering. I am active in a couple clubs at Stevens but I am mostly involved with Castle Point Anime Convention. I like playing video games like League of Legends, Overwatch, Valorant, and Monster Hunter. I am also a fan of the New York Knicks, but my favorite basketball player is LeBron James. I listen to many different genres of pop music like kpop and hyperpop. My favorite artist is Brakence.
